

Worksheet 1.2: Let's Eat!

Our class gets to enjoy a meal out at _____ on our next field trip. Your group needs to decide on a meal that everyone can agree on in the next five minutes. The restaurant will give the class a good discount but only if everyone orders the same thing. The group must decide on a main course, one side order, one dessert and one drink.

With your group, decide on a final order for the class. Everyone must agree to eat what has been ordered.

Your Group's Final Choice (main course, side order, dessert and drink)
What would have been your own personal choices?
Are you satisfied with the group's choice? Explain why or why not.
Describe how the decision was made in your group. Give examples.
What are the benefits of this decision-making system?
What are the disadvantages of this decision-making system?
