

ACTIVITY 3.1: ANTICIPATION GUIDE

Are the following statements true or false in Canada?

Statement	True / False
Any citizen, aged 14 years and older, can vote in government elections.
Citizens have the choice of communicating with their government official in any language they choose.
I have the right to say anything I want, even if it is not respectful.
Citizens can move to any province or territory in search of a better life.
If I commit a crime, I will have to wait a very long time until my trial.
Citizens can be told they cannot apply to a job if they are of a certain religion.
I have the right to protest, hold up signs, and make lots of noise for an issue I believe in.
I have the right to go to any school I want, regardless of the language I speak and the language of the school.
The media can report on anything at all that happens in Canada.
I will be presumed innocent if I am accused of a crime.	