

How to Use This Resource

This resource is intended to improve civic literacy, introduce the concepts of democracy and elections, increase awareness about government in British Columbia, and teach students how to effectively participate as responsible citizens in their community.

The lessons build upon each other, but they can also be used as stand-alone activities depending on the needs of your classroom and schedule.

Below is a brief description of the components of each lesson.

Guiding Questions:

Critical queries to bring a clear focus to the lesson and direct student learning. Share these questions with students at the beginning of the lesson to support an awareness of the overarching Learning Intentions and to enhance engagement.

Overview:

Provides a brief summary of the learning and activities of the lesson.

Learning Intentions:

Concrete knowledge and competencies that students are expected to have acquired or are working towards from the activities completed in each lesson.

Strategies:

Each lesson has been broken down into three segments. You are encouraged to pick and choose from the strategies and related support tools based on the needs of your classroom and available time.

- Starter: Suggested opening activity, meant to pique interest in the topic and lesson.
- Activities: A series of key activities that help students understand and apply the essential concepts, and develop key competencies.
- Consolidation: Concluding questions and tasks to summarize and reflect on what was learned throughout the lesson.

Adaptations and Supports:

A few reminders and suggestions for language learners, culturally responsive pedagogy and accessibility as well as accommodation considerations.

Background Information for Teachers:

This information covers key terms and concepts related to the theme of the lesson. The purpose is to enhance teacher knowledge and understanding. Not all terms and concepts are covered in the lesson.
