

ACTIVITY 13.1: Analyzing the Outcome

Select one of the campaign promises made by the newly elected government and analyze the anticipated outcome. Suggested resources include the party's website, media websites or pollenize.org/canada.

Briefly describe one of the commitments or promises made by the newly elected government during the campaign.

Who will be impacted by the related action or decision, and how?

Does it represent a turning point or critical moment for the issue? If so, how?

Do the opposition parties support this decision? Why or why not?

How can the government's progress on this commitment or promise be tracked?
