

Law and Order Obeying authority, following the law and other rules.	Tradition Upholding traditional religious, cultural, or family customs and values.	Equality Giving people the same resources and opportunities.	Freedom The ability for people to think, speak and act in ways they consider most appropriate.
VALUE	VALUE	VALUE	VALUE

Patriotism Respect for one's country, national security, and participation in democratic processes.	Power Social status and prestige, control or dominance over people and resources.	Justice The fair and equitable treatment of all people.	Collective Responsibility Fulfilling obligations and duties to one's community and society.
VALUE	VALUE	VALUE	VALUE

politalks	politalks	politalks	politalks

VALUE

Financial Liberty

The ability for people to make decisions about what to do with their money on their own, with minimal government involvement.

VALUE

Humanity

Understanding and appreciating the welfare of all people.

VALUE

Kindness

Helping others to make their lives better and giving help to those who need it most.

VALUE

Social Harmony

Maintaining social order and keeping the peace.

VALUE

Progress

Striving for advancement through innovation and social change.

VALUE

Community

Building and nurturing relationships with neighbours and community members.

VALUE

Security

Protection from, or resilience against, potential harm caused by others.

VALUE

