

Government in Canada

Fill in the blanks as you learn about government in Canada and Saskatchewan.

1. There are three levels of government in Canada: _____, _____ and _____.
2. The _____ government is responsible for global affairs, fisheries and oceans, national defence and public safety.
3. The _____ government is responsible for education, health-care delivery, natural resources and transportation.
4. An Aboriginal nation possessing greater autonomy over its own decision-making process and its own affairs is known as having _____.
5. There are _____ Members of Parliament (MPs) in the House of Commons (number).
6. The Saskatchewan Legislature will have _____ Members of the Legislative Assembly (MLAs) after the 2016 provincial election (number).
7. The leader of the political party in the House of Commons with the most seats is called the _____.
8. The leader of the political party in the Saskatchewan Legislature with the most seats is called the _____.
9. The _____ is Canada's head of state.
10. The sovereign is represented by the _____ at the federal level and the _____ at the provincial level.

TEACHER COPY: Government in Canada

1. There are three levels of government in Canada: federal, provincial/territorial and municipal.
2. The federal government is responsible for global affairs, fisheries and oceans, national defence and public safety.
3. The provincial government is responsible for education, health-care delivery, natural resources and transportation.
4. An Aboriginal nation possessing greater autonomy over its own decision-making process and its own affairs is known as having self-government.
5. There are 338 Members of Parliament (MPs) in the House of Commons.
6. The Saskatchewan Legislature will have 61 Members of the Legislative Assembly (MLAs) after the 2016 provincial election.
7. The leader of the political party in the House of Commons with the most seats is called the prime minister.
8. The leader of the political party in the Saskatchewan Legislature with the most seats is called the premier.
9. The Queen is Canada's head of state.
10. The sovereign is represented by the governor general at the federal level and the lieutenant governor at the provincial level.